

Expressing Your Opinion

The most important county-level government bodies that have authority over development projects are:

- Montgomery County Government, the executive branch
- Montgomery County Council, the legislative branch
- Montgomery County Planning Board, part of the Maryland-National Capitol Parks and Planning commission (M-NPPC)

Residents of Montgomery County can express their opinions about development projects, or any other issue, to each of these organizations as described below.

Contacting the Montgomery County Government

See: <https://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/mcg/contactus.html>

Contacting the Montgomery County Council

For Council agendas, see:

https://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/COUNCIL/Resources/Files/agenda/col/Current_agenda.pdf

To view or listen to Council and Committee sessions live or archived, see:

<https://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/COUNCIL/ondemand/index.html>

Petitions or other written material may be:

- Presented to the Clerk at the time of the hearing
- Emailed to County.Council@montgomerycountymd.gov
- Mailed to
Montgomery County Council
Council Office Building
100 Maryland Avenue
Rockville, MD 20850
- Delivered to
Montgomery County Council
Council Office Building
100 Maryland Avenue
Rockville, MD 20850

Contacting the Montgomery County Planning Board

The Planning Board encourages public participation at its meetings. See:

http://www.montgomeryplanning.org/development/development_manual/documents/HowtoeffectivelyparticipateinreviewingdevelopmentapplicationsinMontgomeryCountyRev3.pdf

Residents may consult the Planning Board Agenda page to view upcoming agendas and to sign up to testify at hearings. For agendas, see: <http://montgomeryplanningboard.org/agendas/>

Comments/opinions may be submitted as:

- Written comments to the Planning Board, sent to mcp-chair@mncppc-mc.org at least 24 hours in advance of a hearing date.
- Phone call to the Commissioners' Office at 301-495-4605.